Assumption of Risk

Permission to Photograph

Assumption of Risk

Participants and parents/legal guardians of minors are hereby given notice that participation in education programs at the Center for American Archeology is likely to include a variety of outdoor activities, including, but not limited to hiking, gathering (clay, grasses, wild foods), thatching, flintknapping, and pottery production. Participants in excavation programs are involved in manual labor and will use common excavation tools, e.g. shovels, trowels. Field conditions are sometimes uncomfortable and may be hazardous. Participants may be transported in buses, trucks, automobiles, vans, and ferries.

In consideration of permission from the Center for American Archeology (CAA) to participate in its education and/or excavation programs, and for other valuable consideration, the undersigned and his/her personal representatives, assigns, heirs, and next of kin fully release the CAA and their employees, agents, successors, assigns, and all persons directly or indirectly liable, from any and all claims resulting from any loss, damage, injury, or death sustained by the Participant arising out of:

- Ownership, operation, use, maintenance, or control of any vehicle;
- Use of any facility;
- Use of any equipment;
- Participation in any activity; and
- Any pre-existing physical condition or disability of the Participant.

Permission to Photograph and/or Film

I understand and agree that the Center for American Archeology (CAA) may photograph or film the Participant and use his/her image in education and/or recruiting material, including but not limited to web pages, slide presentations, brochures, or flyers. It is the CAA's policy to never identify students by name in photos that appear in our PR materials.
